For 22 years, my dream has been to build the library of everything and make it available to everyone. To make information more reliable and permanent. I know we could charge money, but then we couldn’t achieve our mission: a free library for the whole internet. The Internet Archive is a bargain, but we need
Hilton M. Briggs Library and South Dakota State University celebrated 125 years of government information service to the state of South Dakota in 2014. The library has been a member of the Federal Depository Library Program since 1889 when South Dakota became a state. Hilton M. Briggs Library is the largest depository library in South Dakota providing government information services and a collection of over 663,000 government publications in tangible and online formats. • Morrill Act 1862: Established land grant educational institutions. • 1881: SD Territorial Legislature charters the Agriculture. 125 Books for 125 Years A list for you from the Prescott Library A The Absolutely True Diary of a Part Time Indian Amulet Quasquicentennial Book List And Then There Were None Anne of Green Gables. 2. Annie on My Mind Brown Bear, Brown Bear What Do You See? 5. S My Antonia My Brother Sam is Dead N O Shadow Smile The Snowy Day Number the Stars Speak Officer Buckle and Gloria Stargirl Out of The Dust Starry Rivers of the Sky P The Penderwicks Stellaluna The Phantom Tollbooth The Story of Edgar Sawtelle The Story of Ferdinand Pink and Say The Pink Refrigerator The Stranger The Plot Against America Swimmy. The Princess Diaries R Roll of Thunder, Hear My Cry T Tangerine That Was Then, This is Now Quasquicentennial Book List.